

Sandra Gordon Blake (Sandy)
Volunteer of the Year
Quota International of Monroe, Louisiana

Quota International of Monroe Louisiana, proudly recognized Dr. Sandra Gordon Blake as its 2008 Volunteer of the Year.

Sandy has been a member of QI of Monroe since 2001. During that time she has held numerous offices including First Vice-President, President-Elect, President, Parliamentarian and Treasurer. She has chaired the Membership Committee and served on Speech and Hearing, Budget and Ways and Means Committees.

Since being in Quota, Sandy has been active not only in positions of leadership but also in all club activities. She participates in fund-raising like this spring's garage sale, socials such as Pokeno night, membership socials, and service activities such as Snuggle-Buggle Book Night and Teacher Appreciation at our adopted school. She has also produced our club's newsletter for 4 of the last 8 years. Sandy has also supported Quota at District, South Area and International meetings.

After returning to campus life in 1993, Sandy has held a faculty position at The University of Louisiana College of Pharmacy since 1998. Still with the College of Pharmacy, she is now the Director of the Office of Outcomes Research and Evaluation. She and her husband, John, have been married for 39 years; have 2 sons and 2 grandsons. In addition to Quota, Sandy has held leadership positions in church and community organizations.

Sandy Blake is truly a person who loves Quota, believes in our mission and being an active part of an organization that makes things happen.
