Volunteer of the Year for 2007-08

The member chosen for Volunteer of the Year for 2007-08 is truly that – a volunteer in every sense of the word. Only a member for two years, she has clearly demonstrated the willingness, the knowledge, and the true Quota spirit by always saying, “I’ll do that”, or, “If you can’t find anyone, let me know and I’ll do it”. Examples of this “will do” attitude are reflected in her works for our local club:

- as a newly initiated member she took chairmanship of one of the sub-teams of the Better Hearing and Speech Team.
- she co-chaired the Special Missions Team.
- she acted as Recording Secretary for 2007-08.
- she volunteered to coordinate Derby Day 2008 (and again for 2009!)
- she is actively involved in all aspects of the club and its mission work. In fact, this writer knows of at least two times when she has changed personal plans with her family in order to provide that extra pair of hands needed for service projects.
- she attended District Conference in 2007 in Ocean City.
- when we had problems recruiting a team chair for the Community Service Team, she said, “If you can’t find anyone, I’ll do it”.
- when the Corresponding Secretary resigned for the 2008-09 year, this member said, “I’ll do it”.

She has proven to be reliable, dependable and a very hard worker who is committed to Quota’s missions and the best possible means to provide those services in a fiscally responsible way.

Anna Cutter resonates in a loud voice this years’ international theme of, “Create a Chorus of Caring” and our club’s motto of “Seek Beauty, Give Peace, Share Joy”.
